FOOTPRINTS IN TIME

While walking along the beach, we leave behind footprints in the sand. These impressions are unique to each of us and provide a memory of our presence on the beach. In this same way, we leave an impression on the memories of others, reminding them of prior fun and laughs. The students of the Class of 2014 have created many memories, which will be remembered fondly by our classmates. These memories remind us of those who were the great athletes, the best actors and actresses, the founders of certain clubs, and much more. Our involvement in these activities helps form our unique "footprints." Just like the different shapes and sizes of footprints on the beach, the memories we created vary, yet maintain a sense of common ground within the halls of Stoneham High School. The memories created by the Class of 2014 are timeless and unforgettable; thus, we commemorate our class as we leave our Footprints in Time. Our class has cherished our four years of high school, enjoying laughs with friends in the dimly lit school halls and cheering and sighing in the rowdy football stands. Through these memories, each of us has initiated our own path of footprints, overlapping and crossing the paths of others along the way. Though these memorable paths invariably diverge and approach different directions over time, the fundamental first steps originated in the Stoneham High School community. This book reflects all of the footprints that we, the Class of 2014, will inevitably leave behind as each of us bids farewell to SHS and commence new journeys.

DEDICATION

Mr. Stephen Burnham

As Vice Principal, one must be responsible for the well-being of hundreds of students. One must be able to tend to the needs of each individual with patience and care. Mr. Burnham surpasses all standards of a Vice Principal, by not only establishing himself as an authority figure, but also as a friend, counselor, and role model. He is devoted to his students and passionate about the school. His school spirit has inspired students to achieve in academics and in life.

Mr. Burnham has been an essential part of our high school experience, helping us to resolve personal conflicts and encouraging us to enjoy every minute of our time here at Stoneham High. He has encouraged the Spartan within all of us, bringing Spartan Spirit Day and Thursday Trivia Challenge to the classrooms of Stoneham High. He began his career as Vice Principal at SHS as we began our journey as freshmen, creating a bond between our class and himself stating, "You guys will always be the first class I saw from start to finish as a Vice Principal, and that is very special to me." As we depart these halls, we will miss Mr. Burnham's support and positive spirit. Likewise, he will miss us, describing our class as "simply the nicest class I have seen walk through the doors here." As we graduate, we may be apprehensive as we leave this positive environment, but inspired by Mr. Burnham's confidence in our ability to succeed in the future.

His strong influence and guidance will continue to motivate us as we move beyond the walls of Stoneham High School. The Class of 2014 thanks Mr. Burnham for his constant support and care during our four years at SHS. We promise we will "be good to each other today" and never lose the Spartan Spirit that he has instilled in each of us.

FACULTY

The Stoneham High School faculty is a family of devoted professionals with a passion for doing their part. Their characteristics are, but certainly not limited to friendliness, humor, compassion, intelligence, optimism, and above all patience. We, as the class of 2014 were fortunate enough to have met such a family that would guide us in the right direction toward our futures. They have not only taught us the subjects required in each class, but also the lessons needed to better ourselves as individuals. Each day as a corner was turned, a friendly faculty face would emerge; ready to help in any situation. Within our four years at Stoneham High School, the faculty was able to guide us from perplexed freshmen to ambitious seniors. They have shown us that no matter how hard it seems, our goals could be accomplished, that no matter how frustrated we felt they were there, and no matter how much we thought we knew, often they knew more. For the past four years the Spartan staff has come together to help shape who we are today. This support has forged a path in our lives with never ending influence allowing the Class of 2014 to embark on our journey with confidence following in the footprints of those who have guided us.

RETIREE
Mr. Edmund Grammer

Mr. Grammer will be remembered for his easy going manner, his talent on several musical instruments, and his sincere concern for his students. His aptitude for arranging music made the most of sometimes uneven instrumentation, making a smaller band sound full and complete. While dividing his time between the middle and high schools, he worked diligently to build a solid music program. No matter how limited the numbers, Mr. Grammer's bands always put on a great show for the audience. It is a testament to his mentorship that many of his students have gone on to pursue music in college. We thank him for his 26 years of service in Stoneham and we will miss seeing him in the stands at the football games, headlining with the school band at community programs and marching in the parades.

John and Mike:
"We would go to 2001 and prevent the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. It was such a tragedy; we'd like to take away all the suffering people went through and still go through today."

"Anything Goes"

For the last time the lights came up on stage for the Class of 2013 members of the SHS Drama Club. The musical at hand is Anything Goes, written by Guy Bolton, Howard Lindsay, Russell Crouse, and P.G. Wodehouse, with music and lyrics by Cole Porter. This quirky musical stars the beautiful night club singer Reno Sweeney (Alyssa Bené), who boards the S.S. American and meets an impressive but motley crew of men and women who make the trip from New York to London. Hope Harcourt (Riley Moriarty), is a proper young women who has been promised to marry the stuffy Evelyn Oakleigh (Nick Preziosi), but who falls in love with a young stowaway, Billy Crocker (Jakob Michaels). With help from Moonface Martin (Benjamin Doucette), the bumbling gangster, and his sidekick Bonnie (Amanda Collier), Billy finds a way to convince Hope that he is the one to love and marry. Reno brings along her angels Faith (Shona Barton-Negreiros), Grace (Molly O'Neill), and Virtue (Rebecca Dalton), who participate in some not so angelic escapades on ship with a handsome sailor (Matt McGuire). Also onboard is Bishop Henry Dobson, who brings along two hilarious Chinese gamblers, Ching (Liam Rondeau) and Ling (Justin Katz), who team up with Moonface Martin in his crazy affairs, as he poses as Dobson after Dobson's arrest and allegedly becomes "Public Enemy Number One" or Moonface Martin. Other Class of 2014 members include Girl 2 (Katelyn Gearin), Purser (Olivia Lombardo), and Drunk (Kacey Green) who hilariously jumps off the boat in her stupor. And what is a ship without its Passengers portrayed by Imani Griffin, Rachel Peterson, and Bevin Waldman?

Aside from the impressive acting and singing talents of the cast, we must not forget all of the hard working people behind the curtains. The crew of the Drama Club is an extensive and diverse group of students who coordinate every aspect of the show to make it run smoothly. One of the key positions that assists in the smooth running of the show is the stage manager and assistant stage manager (Thomas Dalton and Shona Barton-Negreiros). The masters behind set management are the technical directors (Tommy Driscoll and Mary Kate McGrath) who were assisted by fellow directors and assistants. Creating characters on stage who look like they came from another time and place were none other than the heads of costumes (Kacey Green and Caroline Thompson) working with costumes crew member Matt McGuire in collaboration with the heads of props managing every small detail on stage (Benjamin Doucette and Kathryn Murphy). Preparing the faces of the entire cast are heads of hair and makeup (Molly O'Neill and Sucharita Mukherjee), and make-up and hair crew (Matt McGuire). The programs were created by house manager (Shona Barton-Negreiros), and the lobby art was created by art director Meaghan O'Neill, art assistant Kelly Brennan, and lobby artists including senior Emily Edwards. Microphones and sound effects were handled by sound design and operators (Steve Cerasoli and Will Connell). Responsible for the most labor intensive portion of the process, was the construction crew! (Shona Barton-Negreiros and Katelyn Gearin). Additionally, an extremely important component of the production was the choreographers, who produced a simple yet quirky set of dance moves that pleased the crowd to no end! (Shona Barton-Negreiros and Alyssa Bené). The great success of the show would have been impossible without the hard work and dedication from the extraordinary director, Mr. Jason Eppskrier, who tirelessly pours his blood, sweat, and tears into the club. By his side is Mrs. Danielle Catalano, avid supporter and "anything-you-need" go to artist! With her fun nature and skilled hand, the sets brought the show to life. And lastly, a huge nod to Mr. Lague, dedicated music director, who elevated the voices of cast members to angel status. The show was a rewarding and collaborative experience, and the senior cast and crew will miss drama dearly! We wish much luck to the future members of the club. Break a leg everyone!

"It's A Wonderful Life"

The Drama Club's Production of It's A Wonderful Life showcases the talent we have come to expect! In Bedford Falls, George Bailey (Liam Rondeau) considers taking his life over recent unfortunate events. As a young boy, George saves the local druggist, Mr. Gower (Will Connell). Years later, George reconnects with Mary Hatch (Alyssa Bené). Though the two have a magical night together, they are interrupted by the news of George's father's (Lucas Silva) heart attack. Months later, Mrs. Bailey (Olivia Lombardo) encourages George to pursue Mary. George heeds his mother's advice and goes to Mary's home, much to her mother's (Rachel Peterson) unpleasant surprise. The couple's awkward reunion is interrupted by a call from Sam Wainwright (Justin Katz). Shortly after this call, the two realize their love and decide to get married. The happy day is short lived when George's cousin, Tilly (Katelyn Gearin), informs him that there is trouble in the bank! George rushes to the scene and calms the agitated townspeople (Bevin Waldman, Imani Griffin, Brian Palazzo) by giving them his own savings. The bank business remains open much to the dismay of Mr. Potter (Eddie Pizzano) and his secretary (Rebecca Dalton). George heads home to his new bride to find that his friend Ernestine (Kacey Green) has arranged a surprise honeymoon. Years pass and George and Mary have five wonderful children. However, George's Uncle Billy (Justin Katz) puts the business is at risk . The money falls into the hands of Mr. Potter who threatens to expose the mistake. George leaves his home and goes to the infamous bridge where he contemplates suicide. An angel named Clarence (Ben Doucette) saves him by taking him on a tour of a world without George. George sees his friends, like Mr. Martini (Matt McGuire), who are overrun by misfortune. George has a change of heart and chooses to live. He returns home to his family and finds that his community has come together, welcoming him with their kindness, reminding him that all along he had a wonderful life. This performance was a wonderful success! Many thanks to the senior Production Crew including Shona, Kelly, Steve, Tommy, Molly, Caroline, and Kacey. An individual's induction into the National Honor Society reflects the perseverance and academic excellence demonstrated by the nominated student throughout his or her high school career. This year, Stoneham High School inducted thirty seven students into this prestigious organization. The criterion for nomination includes commitment to the everyday practice of the four pillars: leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

Principal Donna Cargill began the evening by welcoming families and students and congratulating the inductees. Following the welcome address, National Honor Society officers spoke on each of the four pillars. President Gabriela Chiaramida spoke on how leadership begins with vision, perseverance, integrity, and passion. Secretary Sarah McGovern discussed scholarship and stressed the idea that true scholars possess a genuine love of learning. Treasurer Meredith Coccoluto emphasized individual distinction through strength of character. Vice-President Molly O'Neill concluded the officers' speeches recognizing the importance of service and the strength of its impact on others.

Mrs. Geeta Barde, beloved biology teacher, delivered the Honors Address. She commended the inductees on their academic and extracurricular accomplishments in and around the school community. This year, Mr. Timothy Cummings was recognized and awarded Honorary Membership into the National Honer Society for his continuous dedication to the education of his students.

After the speeches and Honorary Membership were presented, the Candlelight Ceremony began. Each of the new inductees took the stage to receive pins and certificates from the officers. Following the presentation of these well earned tokens of accomplishment, the inductees recited the National Honor Society Pledge. To conclude the evening and celebrate, the new members and their families posed for pictures while enjoying refreshments at the reception.

Words From the Wise

President Gabriela Chiavamida
"You are all leaders. It is up to you to use the passion, the perseverance, the integrity that you all embody, and take your vision, no matter what it may be, and turn it into your reality."

Vice-President Molly O'Neill
"We may never be remembered for our individual acts of service, and our acts may never have an obvious worldwide impact, but we must embrace service and intertwine it into our lives wherever we go."

Treasurer Meredith Coccoluto
"Never stop striving to be someone who others can look up to, because you are all somebody's role model."

Secretary Sarah McGovern
"Learning is a lifelong task. It doesn't start and end with school. Be open to new experiences and make the most out of every opportunity."

The officers wait to give their speeches!

DramaFest

The Drama Club performed their competitive production of Spring Awakening, written by German dramatist Frank Wedekind. Though the play was written between 1890 and 1891, it was not performed until 1906. This dark play is set in a small village in Germany. The following actors have key roles in the production and are portrayed by the following seniors: Wendla Bergmann (Alyssa Bené), Melchior Gabor (Justin Katz), and Moritz Stiefel (Liam Rondeau). Wendla is a fourteen year old girl with the mind-set of a six year old, who lives with her rigid mother, Frau Bergmann (Olivia Lombardo). Frau Bergmann will not explain where babies come from to Wendla, placing Wendla in the dark about sexual activity. In stark contrast is Melchior, who knows everything about sex and sexuality, does not believe in God or any of the beliefs and rules that society dictates. Melchior chooses to teach Moritz about these things as the play unfolds. Moritz on the other hand, is stuck in society's conformity, and is obsessed with school work and trying to please his parents. One day in the forest, Wendla and her two friends Martha (Emily Pinto) and Thea (Dalilah Degen- Portnoy) are talking together when it is revealed that Martha is subjected to beatings at home. Wendla is mystified at the concept of beating and pain, and by chance meets Melchior in the forest. She asks him to beat her. He loses control, and beats her with a stick and his fists. She runs off, and Melchior is disgusted with himself. In her confusion, Wendla talks to her mother, begging to be told where babies come from. Providing some element of comedic relief after this dark event, Frau Bergmann vaguely "explains" where babies come from. She does not say much at all that will help Wendla actually understand. However, satisfied with the answer she received, Wendla begins to walk to her sister's house and meets Melchior in the forest. He is still disgusted with himself for beating her, but she insists that he is forgiven and lies down with him. He begins to kiss her and she tries to push him off, but he becomes angry and sexually assaults her, running off when he completes the act. The focus then shifts to Moritz, who has decided to take his life due to societal pressures. Before going through with his suicide, a girl named Isle (Alex Flammia), who has run away from the village at a young age choosing to live a Bohemian life, runs into Moritz. They talk about the adventures she has had outside of the village, and is so absorbed with her own life that she does not realize Moritz means to kill himself. She leaves him, and Moritz shoots himself in the head and dies. Back at the Bergmann's house, the Doctor (Eddie Pizzano) is giving a prescription to Wendla for her "sickness," which is her unplanned pregnancy. Frau Bergmann breaks out in anger at Wendla's pregnancy. Wendla did not realize that Melchior's actions were what created a baby. Frau Bergmann calls a mid-wife named Mrs. Schmidt (Erin Napier), who performs a primitive abortion on Wendla that kills her. During this morbid abortion scene, a scene between Hansy Rillow (Will Connell) and Ernst (Jakob Michaels) transpires, where Ernst and Hansy admit their love for each other. Finally, Melchior walks through a cemetery and stumbles upon Wendlas grave, hating himself for "murdering" her. He expresses his wish to die. Moritz then returns from the grave with a bloody head wound, and tries to convince Melchior to take his hand and die with him. A mysterious character finally speaks. The Masked Man (Benjamin Doucette) comes down from the perch he has been sitting on since the opening of the play. Dressed and covered in white, he speaks angrily to the two boys. The Masked Man is a metaphor for life, and shows Melchior that Moritz means to kill him. Melchior chooses to continue living. Finally, Moritz ends the play with the deep understanding that he is dead, and smiles ironically as the lights go down. Other characters include Otto (Cameron Lemay) and Robert (Bobby Borenstein) who portray schoolboy friends of Melchior and Moritz.

The Massachusetts Educational Theater Guild holds this competition annually for schools throughout Massachusetts and all participating schools must perform a play in forty minutes. Stoneham was fortunate to receive many awards and move onto Semi-Finals. Earning awards at the Preliminary level were: Tommy Driscoll, Erin Napier, and Kelly Brennan for Set Design; Liam Rondeau, Justin Katz, and Emily Pinto for Acting; Victoria Brian, Molly O'Neill and Emma McNulty for Hair and Makeup; Kacey Green and Caroline Thompson for Costume Design; and Benjamin Doucette, Steve Cerasoli, and Jakob Michaels for Sound Design. Other technical positions who deserve recognition are Brian Cann, Lighting; Edward Ye, Assistant Stage Manager; Shona Barton- Negreiros, Stage Manager; Matt McGuire, Program Designer, as well as Katelyn Gearin, Brian Palazzolo, and Bevin Waldman as Set-up Crew. On March 15th participating in Semi-finals at Framingham High School, the SHS Drama Club made history when they moved on to Finals! The last time the club moved on was in 2006. Once again, special awards went to Tommy Driscoll, Erin Napier, and Kelly Brennan for Set Design; Liam Rondeau and Alyssa Bené for Acting. Finals is a three day event that takes place at the John Hancock center in the Back Bay of Boston, and is open to the public. All of this could not have been accomplished without the amazing work of the director, Mr. Jason Eppskrier, and the support and hard work from Mrs. Danielle Catalano, Mrs. Tess Degen- Portnoy, and Mr. Tyler McCarthy. Congratulations to all for the amazing hard work and dedication to this piece!

Captains' words

As captains, and as seniors, we would not have changed anything about our last season. We enjoyed every moment with our fellow teammates, on and off the field. The season was filled with some wins and some losses, but in our eyes, it was only a winning season. The season got off to a rocky start with our first five games as losses, but the number of wins picked up as time went on. We went on to win games against Melrose, Burlington, Bedford, and more. We tied games with Wakefield and Melrose as well. Even though our record did not reflect it, every single player worked her hardest on the field. Our team held the number one team in the league, Watertown, to a score of only 1 to 5, which is an immense accomplishment. Varsity's final tournament point count was 11 points out of 18 points needed. This great improvement from last season shows how well we came together as a team this year.

Whether it was senior Katherine Savoia speeding down the field to score a goal or senior Lauren Gallahue defending the net, this team always fought hard. Unfortunately, the Field Hockey team had to fight a lot of injuries this year. Senior Amanda Carroll was injuried for part of the season, but came back strong for our last game of the season playing with all her heart finishing her last field hockey season on the field with the rest of the seniors. Regardless of the number of injuries that occurred we made the most out of our time on the field. We practiced every day to improve our stick work and athletic ability, but never forgot to have fun with each other. We participated in many fun practices where we dressed up in silly costumes, running relays, or playing games.

The Field Hockey team is special in that both the Junior Varsity and the Varsity team do everything together. We are one team that wins together and loses together. We will not forget the family that was formed on that field. Special thanks to our amazing coach Mrs. Adams.

Lauren and Christina Romeo sweep the ball away from the other team.

Kristin and Christina race down the field to score.

The three captains smile from the sidelines.

Go Spartans!

Kristin dodges an offenseman.

Captains' words

The Golf Team started the season well, though our record at the close of the season did not highlight our successes. TJ Finn and Cameron Lemay, two juniors, were elected as the team captains with the rest of the team consisting of freshmen and sophomores. Returning members Dillan Horgan, Brendan Tarmey, Noah Coccoluto and new sophomore, Ottavio Casciato were joined by a talented group of freshman including Cole DiGangi and Brendan Dudman. Rounding out this talented bunch were some colorful personalities which included Andrew Scarpa, Jonathan Burns, and Patrick Gallahue.

The Team's first two matches, were non-league matches, both against Medford and both matches were very close. After the first two matches the team held a 1-1 record. We had some excitingly close matches, with a lot of personal victories for some players including Sean O'Grady, who came close to winning some of his matches and Cole DiGangi who won the majority of his matches.

In the league this year we faced some experienced teams such as Reading, Woburn, and Burlington. These teams were primarily made up of seniors. We also had many matches against some difficult opponents, like Winchester, Arlington, Belmont, and Lexington. We had some close matches against Melrose and Wakefield as well. We faced Cambridge High School in a non-league match and won! Looking forward to next year, we will be more experienced and we will have a larger team and a talented group of freshmen. We will have some seasoned players who will lead the way.

Captains' words

While our record as a team was not a particularly good one this year, we had a lot of individual success and improvement. Meredith Coccoluto finished first in one of our league races, and Brenlee Shipps set a huge personal record at our Divisional meet. At the Coaches Invitational meet, Catie Rappa came in 27th out of 114, and Maeve Kelly showed great perseverance by finishing with an impressive personal record. Jackie Nolan, while injured, worked hard to keep herself in shape and diligently followed the trainer's orders so that she could run at our Divisional race at the end of the season. Reiko Laski was new to our team this year, but consistently ran at the front of our group runs all season, from captains' practices to our last practice as a team. We were so excited to have not only two freshmen, Maeve Rondeau and Victoria Garcia, but two eighth graders as well: Haley Green and Francesca Carpinella. Our underclassmen did so well this season and have many promising seasons ahead of them. We could not have asked for a better team; we had so much fun at every race and practice that it's difficult to say goodbye. We'd like to thank our Coach, Kevin Norton, for all the guidance he's given and for being there whenever we needed him. This was a fantastic season, and we wish all of our girls the best for next year and beyond.

Captain's words

This has been an excellent cross-country season and I couldn't be more proud of my fellow runners. We had a great turnout compared to last year with many kids new to cross-country joining the team. We have two junior sprinters (Matt Bergin and Jimmy O'Brien) looking to improve their times, a junior hurdler (Matt Turner) returning to his first high school team, a sophomore (Alex Shipps) looking for an edge on the basketball court, three all out distance runners (Jacob Jackson, Nick Ford, and Tyler Trant), a freshman (Patrick Prendeville) who just moved to Stoneham, and three eighth graders (Brian Brennan, Mike Reilly, and Jared Dalone) looking to compete with kids up to five years older than themselves.

We had enormous improvement across the board with every runner ending far better than they began. Some practices were brutal, but we fought through and survived them together. We all shared many memories this season, from the pain and exhaustion of repeat half miles, to the joy and laughter of pasta parties. We are more than a team, we are a family and it was an honor to lead them as captain. Throughout the season every runner on the team ran his heart out in every meet and every practice and the results speak for themselves. Cross-country cannot be measured in wins and losses; only in improvements and, in this respect, we all came out champions. I leave this season knowing that next year my teammates will continue to push their limits and will never stop fighting for each second in every race.

Captains' words

The best way to describe our team is by our core values: Pride, Passion and Determination. The Stoneham High School swim team is notorious for being the smallest team in the Middlesex League, however our small numbers do not discourage our pride and determination. We swim with heart, and we cheer each other on with passion. Being on a small team, each member puts in maximum effort, and is asked to rise to the challenge and step out of their comfort zone. Our team is unique because our team's record may be low, but our personal achievements are forces to be reckoned with.

We had an exciting start to the season when we welcomed six new swimmers to the team, two of them being boys, transforming our formerly all girl team into a first ever coed one. We also had thirteen returning swimmers who had worked hard to improve their strokes and break personal records. Bailee Day even beat the school record for the 100 breaststroke!

Seniors Caroline Thompson, Kiersten Dudman and Joy Albiani helped us greatly being great role models in and out of the pool and setting a good example for the underclassmen.

Our record shows we did not win any meets this season, but what is not shown is how close we were to winning against Woburn and Burlington. We competed in 10 meets and placed 7th at the Middlesex League meet, defeating Burlington. This was an improvement from placing last, the season prior.

Memories from our time spent on the team will live with us forever. We're going to miss the team next year, we wish them the best of luck for next season. Go Spartans!

Captains' words

After our successful season last year, making it to the quarterfinals, we had big shoes to fill. We began preparing in the spring and continued with captain's practices, workouts, and summer league games. From the beginning, we saw the potential our team possessed and hopes were high for a good season. We had a great pre-season which reassured our predictions about how the season would go. After a rocky start with tough losses to Arlington and Winchester, we hoped to redeem ourselves with the remaining games. The end result was not always an accurate reflection of how we had played in the game and how we dominated with possession. Although our record does not show the determination and heart we practiced and played with, our team battled until the end of every game and made it a memorable season for everyone. We were fortunate enough to have a devoted coach, Ms. Chapman, who never gave up on us and provided us with the tools we needed for success. We were also lucky to have the guidance and advice of Coach K and Coach Swett on the sideline of every game they could make. Even though our team was plagued by injuries for a majority of the season, many of the younger players were able to step up and take on the responsibilities set before them. This year, we had twelve devoted seniors on the team, who have been playing soccer for most of their lives. This combination of young and more experienced players made for a fun yet productive atmosphere at practices and games. We were all upset when we did not make the tournament this year, however it allowed for a light and enjoyable end of the season and we were able to end on a positive note. Our team motto has always been to play with HEART and this year we feel that the team exceeded that expectation. We are so proud and honored to be the leaders of this team and are so grateful for the memories made and accomplishments achieved. This was the best worst season ever and we will truly miss everyone and we wish you all good luck with next season!

Captains' words

This season was a challenge for us, both individually and as a team. Plagued by season ending injuries, all of those who were injured played a crucial role on the team, such as John Brown, Greg Hopp, and Kevin Markiewicz. Even though we did have some problems it is all about how you finish, because when we got knocked down we got back up again. During every game all players gave 110 percent. Sure we might not have had the greatest record (1-13-3), but when you break down every game individually, the scores were weirdly nice and decided by only one or two goals. Some teams we thought to be impossible to compete with, we ended up tying, such as Lexington, where we tied 3-3 and Steve McGrath scored a hat trick, all assisted by Evan Kotowski. We also managed to win our first game of the season versus Maimonides, crushing them in a 4-0 victory that was well earned and greatly needed. This was a team with amazing chemistry. We had many laughs this season but when it was game time we were all focused and ready to do our jobs. Everyone provided a benefit to the team, whether it was Will Orca and Jarred Penney joking every practice or Justin Whooley and Jeff Fagan calling their knees, "horse knees." If there is one thing we should take away from this season, it is that we never quit on one another. All of us will forever remain a family. So as we all leave SHS, remember that we will all have each other's backs because we are SFC and we are we! Many thanks to Coach Kirkland for a great season and good luck to the team next year.

Captains' words

Our season may have been quite the roller coaster ride, but in the end it was nothing short of being perfect. Under the coaching staff of Paul Hardy and Tom Sullivan, we finished our regular season at 11-9 and were one of the few fall sports teams to qualify for the state tournament.

While many of us have had the privilege to play alongside one another for the past few years, events like pasta parties, team sleepovers, scavenger hunts, and sing-along sessions on bus rides enabled us to create closer bonds and lasting friendships.

Beating Melrose in a set this season was a very triumphant moment for the team, but our senior night was definitely the event that impacted us most.

Walking into the gym on senior night for our last home game ever on the Spartan Volleyball court was bittersweet. The stands were packed with our family, friends, and fans. The entire gym was decorated with balloons and streamers, and the curtains were lined with posters decorated with all our seniors' names. The atmosphere gave off great energy and everyone was in the zone. After individual tributes to each of our seniors, the game began. That night we cruised to a 3-0 win against Wilmington.

As we began our journey into the state tournament, we took an easy win from our first round match-up against Boston English, before falling to Bedford in the quarter-finals. Although our tournament run was cut short by a heartbreaking 3-2 loss, the way we played our last few points showed how much heart and dedication we all had for the game and most of all for one another.

The seniors who contributed to our impressive season are Miranda Arena, Stephanie Bramante, Gabriela Chiaramida, Jillian Cortese, Stephania Dakoyannis, AnnMarie Magaletta, Fanula Karanxha, and Olivia Sarcia, led by senior co-captains Zoe Staude and Emily Trant.

Captains' words

This season was filled with moments of triumph and moments of despair: from defeating Wakefield in dramatic fashion to losing in triple overtime to Reading on Thanksgiving day. Yet through all the adversity, we remained driven and determined as a team...as a family. Together we have embraced the idea that success derives itself from sacrifice and hard work. Freshman year we came to a program that was in the midst of a long losing streak. After working tirelessly in the pursuit of success, we depart from this program proud. We have resurrected this program together. No longer will the Stoneham Spartans be underestimated in the Middlesex League. Despite losing to Reading, a clear message was sent: when you play the Spartans you better expect a physical game. We may have lost to Reading on Thanksgiving but we won their respect. After every game, win or lose, our opponents knew that they had just played the Stoneham Spartans as their bodies ached in pain. From Redstone to Dairy Dome, we bleed blue. We will all miss this wonderful sport and all the times we had together but we will always remain a family with one heartbeat and one goal.

This year was a very successful season for the Stoneham High Cheerleading team. This team worked so hard week after week making changes and doing what was best for the team. Our goal this year was to come in the top 5 at states and we sure did do that! This year we were second in the state and ended up getting a bid to nationals. This was the first time for Stoneham. Another amazing accomplishment was that we beat another Middlesex League team that Stoneham has never beaten before. We would like to thank our coach Nicole Laurila. Nicole is an amazing coach and has much heart and determination to do whatever it takes for the team to come out on top. We had an amazing season, we love you all. Good luck next year!

Captains' words

This season, the girls' Indoor Track Team was noticeably competitive in the Middlesex League. Although Stoneham is one of the smallest teams in the league, we fought for every last second to attain every possible point. Our season started quickly with less than two weeks before our first meet. This year we had a smaller number of seniors and freshmen, but the sophomore and juniors were able to play a major role in making this a successful season. Before the first meet,we had many newcomers who had to discover in which event they wanted to compete. We had many memorable moments during the season, including a win over Watertown and a close meet against Wilmington. During the meet against Watertown, many of our teammates had great races and we were able to capture the win. However, the last meet against Wilmington is one that none of us will ever forget. We knew that we were evenly matched against Wilmington, because we both had the same record and our girls had run similar times to their girls. We went into the meet not knowing what to expect. It all came down to the relay and whoever won this race would win the meet. Even though our girls ran one of their best races, we unfortunately did not win. Ultimately, this meet was memorable because each and every player fought hard during every race. The captains would like to recognize the seniors on the team: Meredith Coccoluto, Alizé Galy, Brianna Migliore, Alessandra Molinaro, Melanie Villagran, and Brenlee Shipps. We would also like to thank our wonderful coaches, Coach Polizzotto and Coach DiLisio. Without their continuing motivation and dedication to the sport, we would not have grown into the passionate athletes we have become. Although track is an individual sport, this year, we came together as a team. Thank you all for an amazing season.

Captains' words

This winter season was a massive success. We finished with a respectable 3-2 record and sent many excellent athletes to states and one amazing sprinter (Jimmy O'Brien) to All-States. Jimmy also recently broke the school's long standing 45m dash record. In addition to all of this, our team had four amazing all-stars: David Bergin, Guy Wynter, Matt Bergin, and Jimmy O'Brien. Our team was also graced with a large group of newcomers in every grade level who will be leading the team in a few short years. Even the often avoided distance crew is being manned by some fresh runners. Leading the team was an excellent group of captains, with David Bergin leading the jumpers and hurdlers, Aaron Louis leading the throwers, Joe Brown leading the sprinters, and Tyler Trant leading the distance runners. In addition to our elected captains, each and every senior stepped up one way or another to encourage their fellow athletes. Guy Wynter was a constant source of enthusiasm helping his fellow hurdlers push through grueling practices. Ray Lanzillo was always quick to help anyone who was having trouble in the weight room. Matt Kawa was incredibly helpful to any and all newcomers who were unfamiliar with our extensive and complicated warm-up routine. Our pentathlon team (consisting of Guy Wynter, Aaron Louis, and David Bergin) ended our season on an excellent note by coming in 7th out of 40 in the state pentathlon. With the spring season rapidly approaching, we have faith that our team will grow even stronger with new runners, throwers, and jumpers entering the track family.

Captains' words

Our season began with a rocky start, but we could not let a few bad meets stop us. We began to work together and improve our team. Even after a long meet we would spend time talking to each other about our strengths and weaknesses in preparation for the next meet. The devotion we put into gymnastics helped our score go from a 124 to a 129 in a matter of three meets. We could not take all the credit for our motivation. This season, team and passion would not have happened if it was not for Coach McNeil. She taught us new skills every practice and made us work until we could not jump or flip anymore. She set a goal for us to reach a score of 130 by the end of the season, because we had a continuous score of 129. Despite our 2-5 record, our team was strong and we kept it together throughout the season. This helped us to prepare for our league meet. Hoping to score a 130 we bonded with a team breakfast and a team pep rally before the meet started. By the end of the meet our hearts were all in our stomachs waiting for the final scores. Everyone listened in shock as teams that had previously beat us were being called before us. When we heard Stoneham at 133.875, we went ballistic! We placed second place in the Middlesex League. What a great way to end our career as Stoneham High gymnasts. Best of luck to next year's team- we hope you reach new heights!

Captains' words

After clinching the Middlesex Title last year, we entered the season with certainty and determination, optimistic for another successful year. More than half of the seniors have been playing together since the second grade and we have created a dynamic out on the basketball court unlike any other team we have ever played on. We had undeniable confidence in one another. Each senior had a unique style and ability of play that flowed onto the court and contributed to our team's success. No matter the outcome of the game there was never a lack in effort, one hundred and twenty percent was given at all times and this style of play became our team identity. As the end of the season approached it was crunch time to make the tournament. We needed to win both of our last games to make the tourney. We captured the win over Burlington on senior night and were on our way to facing the number two team in the league - Wilmington. As the underdogs we had nothing to lose. However, as seniors, we did not want this to be our last game together and we delivered a game unlike anything we have ever played in in our entire lives. Not only did we beat the top seeded team we also created a tournament berth.

We want to thank everyone on this team for the amazing and memorable experiences together. We could not ask for a better and more hardworking group of girls. We wish the team all the best of luck in the future, and we know you all will do amazing things. We just ask you to cherish these years of basketball and to never forget them. We love you all.

Last but not least, thank you Coach Mills for the unforgettable three years with you as our coach - we wish you the best of luck in the future and we hope you catch some games!

Coming into this season, all odds were stacked against us. We lost our best player to a prep school and due to this everyone thought we were bound to come in last place. However, we had the most unbelievable season and proved everyone wrong. Coming into this season, our team had high expectations for ourselves knowing that we had to prove our potential to the Middlesex league, and to the state. We did exactly that and we ended up with a 13-11 record making it to the Division 3 North Finals at the Tsongas Arena. One statement that stood out this season was the word "believe." We came into this year believing that we could win, believing in our new coaching staff, and most importantly, believing in ourselves. Each person on this team had a role, whether it was Marc Buccelli getting us "going" in the locker room or Chris Kadima bringing so much energy and passion to this team. As captains, we would like to recognize our 10 seniors: Greg Hopp, Steve McGrath, Tommy Nadeau, Steve Mosca, Chris Kadima, Matt Lowe, Evan Kotowski, Mike Liston, Jeff Fagan, and Marc Buccelli. We would also like to recognize the best manager in the state, J.J. Lariccia and wish the best of luck to our underclassmen for next year. This season was for SHS and for the whole town of Stoneham. The deeper and deeper we got in the tournament, more and more fans joined us and celebrated our success. We would like to thank everyone for the support. We, the team, are so proud to have been part of this journey.

Captains' words

After losing our top scorer last year, we knew we had big skates to fill. Finding the words to encourage our team didn't always come easy. However, as captains, we knew that we had to step up this year and try our best to lead a respectable and competitive team. Starting off with a win at our first scrimmage before the season took a little bit of the edge off, but we knew this year was going to be a challenge. The first half of the season was more of a building period for us; with a young team, finding the right lines and combinations took some time. But we adjusted and tried our best through all three periods. One of our major highlights this year was tying Wilmington 1-1 and the following game coming back from a two goal deficit to make the end result 3-2 against Woburn. Although our record of 1-16-1 doesn't seem all that great, it doesn't reflect the time and effort we put into this season. Thank you to our coaches, Ms. Swett and Mr. Serino, who were the ones who would push us to our limits and make us the best hockey players that we could possibly be. Also, many thanks to our fellow seniors who, with their humor and hockey skills, made this year unforgettable. Those seniors are Amanda Carroll, Chelsea Burridge, Emma Dean, and Katie Jenkins. We will miss not lacing up our skates every day for a game or practice. Good luck to the team next year!

Captains' words

Going in to the season our team goal was qualify for the tournament. Although w ultimately fell one game short of our goal, o season was certainly a memorable one. We had u and downs, thrilling wins, and heartbreaking loss throughout this season which all brought together as a team.

We ended the season with a 7-13 record, but w needed only one more win to qualify for t Division 2 state tournament. This season w marked by games that went down to the wire: our 13 losses, 10 were by a single goal. Th includes one goal losses to seven teams that h successful Division 1 tournament runs, includi Division 1 North finalist Wilmington a semifinalist Melrose. Our wins, however, includ a 6-1 victory over Shawsheen Tech in t Christmas Tournament, a 5-0 win over Lexingto a win over Woburn for the first time in years, a a series sweep against Wakefield, also for the fir time in many years. One experience that made th season unforgettable was playing at Fenway Par Fenway, one of the world's most historic baseb parks, is not usually known for hockey game "Frozen Fenway" is usually reserved for colleg and private high schools; however, we were luck enough to get a chance to play Walpole in a matin game. Although the game ended in a tie, it is experience that we will never forget. Our Froz Fenway game was a charity game for our teamma Brandon McCarthy in his battle with cancer, a the support shown by the high school and the tow of Stoneham was truly extraordinary.

Lastly we would like to thank our coaches a seniors. Coaches Sacco, Scarpa, Stead, Drago, a Last were not only great coaches from a hock standpoint, but also role models for how to act and off of the ice. Our seniors include; Captai Jarred Penney and John Gallagher; Assista Captains Justin Whooley and Pat Tufts; Chr Kelly, Brian Kelly, Nick Bragalone, Mike Paon and Jake Jordan. Each brought a lot to the team a the bond we all have will never be broken. Bei a Spartan is something that is earned, not given. is a prestigious honor that we will all rememb and will be a part of us for the rest of our lives.

Memories

"On a half day of school in February of our sophomore year, Kelly, Sam, Victoria, and I traveled to Philadelphia to get an interview for National History Day and to explore the city. We woke up early to catch our flight and ate breakfast at the airport before boarding. The flight was full of businessmen and we were clearly the youngest people on the plane. Less than an hour later we were visiting the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall. We met with the head of the Pennsylvania Abolition Society, an interview that ultimately allowed us to compete in the national round of NHD in Washington, DC. We stopped to eat true "Philly cheese steaks" before heading home. Our day trip to Philadelphia is one of my favorite high school memories."

-- Kiersten Dudman

"My favorite memory from high school was performing in the musical Chicago with the Drama Club. First, I really enjoyed dancing and singing the songs. My favorite song was "All That Jazz." It had some fun dance moves. Second, it was fun hanging out with friends in the cast. The other students were always friendly and nice. It was also fun spending time with my friend, Alyssa. Finally, I liked working with Mr. Eppskrier. He is a great director. He was always at practice and works very hard. I really enjoyed the show."

-- Imani Griffin

"In junior year, I had the opportunity to compete at the Massachusetts DECA Competition State Conference in Boston for three days. The days were long and stressful but worth it in the end when I won 2nd place in the Business Administration competition in which over 100 others competed as well. This experience was the highlight of my high school career and has helped me determine a college major and lifetime profession. I could not be more grateful that I was able to attend this conference."

-- Miranda Arena

"As I watched the ball sail into the net, I realized we had just won the game! It was the semifinals of the North Division Two tournament and Stoneham girls soccer was playing against Arlington for a chance to make it to the finals for the first time in our school's history. The game had been intense and both teams had great chances. I was only a sophomore on the team but as center midfielder, I was a key contributor to the team. As regulation time came to an end the score was still 0-0 and we had to go into sudden death overtime to decide a winner. Nerves were high, as both teams knew what was at risk. Three minutes into the first half of overtime, I received a ball off a cornerkick by Amanda Mohammadi. I quickly took a shot on net. The next thing I knew, the ball was in the net and my teammates were screaming and running onto the field. I was trampled as they celebrated the win. This incredible experience will be etched in my memories for the rest of my life."

"The memory that stands out the most throughout my years at Stoneham High is my first day back of my sophomore year after I transferred back from Northeast Vocational School in late September. I had gone to Colonial Park and the Middle School, but now I was excited to be back in a Stoneham School again. I loved the kids that I grew up with and had great memories again. It was a great feeling being the "new kid." I loved the fact that I was now surrounded by my best friends for the rest of my high school career."

"My favorite memory is Mr. Norton's Creative Writing class on Shakespeare's sonnets 29 and 30. Mr. Norton was teaching us that these sonnets mean that everyone has to reach the very bottom of the roller coaster in order to reach the top. Especially now as a senior, this resonates with me because now we are all at the depth of our high school careers about to reach the pinnacle that is the rest of our lives. Sonnet 30 voices how no one has life figured out, we are all in the same boat. Life isn't pretty; it is meant to be dark and sometimes emotional. 'But if all the while I think on thee, dear friend, All losses are restor'd and sorrows end.'"

"When Stoneham Youth Lacrosse first began in 2010, there were not enough members for the older girls to have a full team, so Kelly Shannon, Kiersten Dudman, Sam Gendall, Meghan Jordan, and Victoria Brian played with the fifth grade girls as eighth graders. As we progressed, we realized that we would come to miss playing lacrosse in high school, since there was no program for us to go into in high school. We brought up this concern to the youth lacrosse presidents. There truly was an interest in the continuation of a lacrosse program for high school students. John Gallagher gathered the boys' team together with the assistance of other parents of boys on the team. Together, players, their parents, and SYL went before the school committee in July 2011 to see if it would be possible to add a lacrosse program to the high school. Kiersten, John, and I took polls of students who were interested in helping our idea come to fruition. In efforts led by the presidents of SYL, the group presented preliminary ideas to the School Committee, who postponed their decision until July. At the July meeting, it was decided that the program would be added as a spring sport to the high school on a trial basis for three years under the cooperation between the School Committee and SYL. In the past three years, growing with the program and playing lacrosse with girls that have become some of my good friends has been an incredible experience, and I am grateful that I was able to experience this program in my time here!"

YEARBOOK EDITORS AND STAFF

As the editors and the staff of the yearbook, we are have faced many deadlines. We really had no idea that we would have to crunch time! Despite the time crunching that all of us experience every day we hope you have had an opportunity to use your time well here at Stoneham High. We hope that you have had the time to leave your mark in a positive and lasting way. It is hard to believe that it is now our turn to go out into the world and leave our own footprints by the choices we will make. Good Luck! It has been an honor to create a yearbook to serve as our collective footprint!

MAX, YOU'RE DONE!

The Road Not Taken

Yet knowing how way leads on to way
I doubted if I should ever come back.
I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I,
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
